In the Court of the Honourable the British Resident in Mysore at Bangalore.

Mis Petition No 221 of 1912.

Rs 20/- deposited for Succession Certificate fees — R. 31-7-12

In the matter of the property of V.P.Varadaraja Mudaliar, late of No.82A, Veerapillay Street, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore - Intestate, deceased.

ALANKARATHAMMAL ..... Petitioner.

Petition of ALANKARATHAMMAL, under the Succession Certificate Act, Sections 6 and 17.

1. Alankarathammal, the petitioner, is the widow of the above-named deceased, and resides at No.82A, Veerapillay Street, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

The address of the petitioner is 82A, Veerapillay Street, aforesaid.

2. The above-named V.P.Varadaraja Mudaliar died on the 13th day of May 1912 in the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, where he was then residing, his place of residence having been at 82A, Veerapillay Street. He left inter alia the property specified in the schedule hereto in respect of which this Honourable Court is empowered to grant a Succession Certificate under Section 17 of the Succession Certificate Act 7 of 1889.

3. The said V.P.Varadaraja Mudaliar left him surviving the relations following, namely -

(1) Alankarathammal, his widow - the petitioner.

(2) Vasudeva Mudaliar, his divided brother, assistant clerk, No 740, Survey of India, Bangalore.

(3) Sampangi Mudaliar, his another divided brother, residing at New Street, Ulsoor, C & M Station, Bangalore.

4. The said deceased was a Hindu by religion, and was not governed by the provisions of the Indian Succession Act of 1865 or by the Hindu Wills Act of 1870.

5. The property referred to in the Schedule hereto was the self acquired property of the deceased, he having paid all the premiums due out of his own earnings. The other properties left by him are also his self acquisitions and the brothers of the deceased, namely, Vasudeva Mudaliar and Sampangi Mudaliar who have been divided and living separately from the deceased for a long time, have no manner of interest in the said property.

6. To the best of my belief no application has been made to any Court for,and no grant has been made of any certificate under the Succession Certificate Act 1889,or Probate or Letters of Administration in respect of the debts,securities or estate of the said V.P.Varadaraja Mudaliar,deceased, and there is no impediment under Section 1,sub-section 4,or under any other provision of the said Act,or any other enactment,to any grant of the certificate hereby prayed for or to the validity thereof,if granted by this Honourable Court.

7. Your petitioner therefore prays :-

(a) That a certificate may be granted to her under the Succession Certificate Act 1889,empowering her to collect the amount due on the Policy referred to in the schedule hereto.

(b) For such other relief as to this Honourable Court may seem fit.

SREE MARGASAGAYAM.

OBJECTS OF THE SANGHAM.

This Sangham has been named after Mrs. Annie Besant to whom the young India cannot be too grateful.

It is a purely Religious Association wherein our youngmen may easily learn the principles of the Hindu religion, apply them to their daily conduct and improve their knowledge of the Tamil literature.

It has a Reading Room and Library (Tamil) to which the Hindu public are allowed.

It feeds the poor without distinction of caste, creed or color, daily.

It also undertakes to feed the poor on behalf of the public whenever requested to do so.
